

An Afternoon with JOE COLLINS

2 Workshops & Concert

Jamming after the concert for those who want to stay.

*Mountain Dulcimer Instructor &
Performer, Songwriter
2007 Winfield National Mountain Dulcimer Champion*

When

Sunday, April 21, 2024
2:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Where

“The Music Room” near Butler
University, Indianapolis

Workshop Schedule

2:00 pm What Goes a Round (Advanced beginner and above) This is a workshop of rounds, those wonderful little tunes that two or more people can enter at different times to create a cacophony of harmony and counter melody. We'll learn several rounds that are worthy of playing together out in public whenever you have two or more players.

3:00 pm Slow Celtic Tunes - Volume 3 (Advanced Novice and above) - Some beautiful Celtic tunes at a leisurely tempo, including “Loch Lomond,” “Star of the County Down,” “Gaelic Aire,” and “From Erin’s Shores.”

4:00 pm Concert

Jamming after concert

Contact Kim Wade (kaw103dlcmr@att.net) for more information and address.

Cost for the workshop(s): $20 for one, $30 for two.

The concert is free for workshop attendees, $5 for non-attendees.

Pay at the door (cash or check made out to Joe Collins).

Email Kim Wade by April 10th if you are interested in attending workshops.