

Arranging for the Serious Dulcimer Player

A Virtual Workshop
by Joe Collins

Saturday, August 31

1 - 3 pm Eastern
12 - 2 pm Central
11 am - 1 pm Mountain
10 am - 12 pm Pacific

Description: Want to get a tune ready as a great solo piece? Discover how to breathe life into even mundane tunes by experimenting with multiple variations. This workshop walks you through several possibilities for creating a more sophisticated arrangement that is uniquely yours. Topics include alternative chords, alternative timing, relative minors, adding parts to a song, etc.

Goal of the Workshop: Participants will take an existing song and modify it several ways to make their own unique arrangements. The ultimate goal is for participants to apply the skills learned to songs of their choice.

Level: Designed for advanced intermediate through advanced players. Participants should be comfortable with chords and timing. They should also be willing to experiment with an existing tune and adding or subtracting from that tune.

Platform: ZOOM

Enrollment Capacity: No more than 25; first registered with payment, first served.

Cost: $20

To Register, CLICK HERE or click the picture above.